Agenda item 4
Elections, nominations, confirmations and appointments

Election of nine members of the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights

Note by the Secretary-General

1. By its resolution 1985/17, the Economic and Social Council decided to establish a Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights to undertake functions relating to the implementation of the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and to assist the Council in fulfilling its responsibilities under the Covenant.

2. In accordance with that resolution, the Council, on 3 May 2000, elected from a list of persons nominated by States parties to the Covenant, nine experts as members of the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, for a four-year term beginning on 1 January 2001 and ending on 31 December 2004. The current membership of the Committee is given in annex I to the present note.

3. In 2004, the Council is to elect nine members of the Committee for a four-year term, beginning on 1 January 2005. The terms of the following members expire on 31 December 2004: Rocío Barahona Riera (Costa Rica), Dumitru Ceausu (Romania), Abdessatar Grissa (Tunisia), Giorgio Malinverni (Switzerland), Sergei N. Martynov (Belarus), Ariranga Govindasamy Pillay (Mauritius), Kenneth Osborne Rattray (Jamaica), Waleed M. Sa'di (Jordan) and Philippe Texier (France).

4. In a note verbale dated 29 November 2003, the Secretary-General invited States parties to the Covenant to submit their nominations for membership in the Committee. The names of the persons nominated as at 1 March 2004 are set out below, together with the States parties that nominated them.

Chairman of the Complaints Committee of the Advisory Council. The Committee receives urgent appeals and individual complaints and conducts necessary investigations referred to it and submits its findings and recommendations to the Advisory Council for Human Rights. In this capacity I organized and participated in different seminars in awareness raising, education of human rights, capacity-building and administration of justice.

Other main activities in the field relevant to the mandate of the treaty body concerned

Held the post of Deputy Director of the Committee of the Eradication of the Abduction of Women and Children, a committee which was established to honour the commitment of the Sudan to the resolution of the Commission on Human Rights adopted at its fifty-fifth session in 1999, in order to investigate reports of the abduction of women and children and cases thereof and to bring to trial any person suspected of supporting or participating in such activities and facilitate the safe return of abductees to their families as a matter of priority.

In this regard, the Committee of the Eradication of the Abduction of Women and Children has achieved tremendous success in eradicating abductions. More than 3,500 abductees have been found, documented and reunited with their families. However, the plan of action of the Committee of the Eradication of the Abduction of Women and Children for 2004 is to find and document the remaining abductees within this year.
